

Our IPC topic this term is Paintings, Pictures and photographs. One of the activities the children particularly enjoyed was photographing and then sketching the view from our classroom window. The children thought carefully about the perspective of what they could see and drawing objects bigger if they were closer and smaller if they were further away.

