

Maple class had the fantastic opportunity to become palaeontologists for the day. We uncovered fossils, learnt lots of interesting facts about dinosaurs and even met a couple named Chewy and Millie! We then took our learning back to the class to inspire some creative writing.

