

St.Hilda's Pupil Parliament

As part of St.Hilda's Pupil Parliament, the children were asked to write a manifesto explaining as to why they would be a good candidate for the pupil parliament scheme. The children stated how they would help the school, bring upon changes and take others opinions and suggestions on board. Here you can see some of the children from Birch Class standing up in front of the class presenting their manifesto's.

