

World Book/ pyjama day

Birch class, along with the rest of the school took part in a pyjama day for world book day. The children completed lots of book related activities and tasks and spent time in the school library. We also had hot chocolate and received a £1 book token to spend in shops.

